“ To my Brother J.B. - I will miss our Family BBQ's and our time playing cards together. We always seemed to be the Winners - beating the girls! The times I will miss the most though, is our time spent together trying to be TRUUE Fishermen. Even though, we never caught that much fish, it didn't matter to me because we were spending brotherly time laughing and cutting up. That meant more to me than fishing. I enjoyed hearing your voice say "HELLO THERE" every time I would call or see you. Thank you for being my big brother and giving me a chance to see all the love in your heart. You will be truly missed.

Love and care, Buddy.

P.S. Please give our mother a big hug and a kiss. Tell her how much I miss and love her.

“ I had the honor of being the baby sister of JB. I take pride in the memories I share as little kid growing up traveling to and from St. Louis. He was a hard working Man, his family was his pride and joy, he was a devoted husband and father. Everything he did was for his family. He worked very hard to put 6 children through private school and to give them the best life they could possibly have. To give them a life He was robbed from. Job well done my brother. I love you and will deeply miss you.
