

James A. Morrow Sr.

October 25, 1930 - February 19, 2021

James A. Morrow Sr. Age 90, of St. Louis, MO.

James Andrew Morrow Sr., was born on October 25, 1930 to Irene Morrow and Tom Buchanan in Nettleton, MS. James went to school in Okolona, MS and graduated from Wren Colored High School in Okolona, MS on May 10, 1950. After high school, James served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War where he was stationed in Japan. After his time in the Army, James moved to St. Louis, MO where he got his first job in a couple of hours after arriving in St. Louis, MO working at Mary Queen of Peace in Webster Groves, MO. He then went to work at Pullman Car Company and Veteran's Hospital at Jefferson Barracks where he worked for 10 years. After that, he went to work at the U.S. Post Office where he worked until retirement in January 1998.

James loved his family and would do anything for anyone. He had much wisdom and was a joy to be around. He attended numerous school and other events for his grandchildren and would talk to anyone.

James was also interested in genealogy and was the family historian. He always had a joke, a smile and a hug for his loved ones.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife Katherine (Sykes) Morrow, his children: Barbara, Sandra, Stephanie, Janet (Desmond), James Jr., (Tiffany), Roney (Joyce), Machel, Inga (Theo), Tasha, eleven grandchildren (Michelle, Cedric, Joy, Brittany, Deven, Ashley, Daisha, Amore, Kiara, Erin and Taylor), two great-grandchildren (Larry and Chiurej), and a host of other relatives and friends

“ Uncle James,

Being around you always put a smile on my face. You were always there whenever I needed you. I feel like I have lost my 2nd dad.

When I first moved to Alabama, you would always tell me to listen to Gerome and do what Gerome ask me to do. I would say, Uncle James, I'm the oldest, and you would laugh. Throughout the years, whenever you saw me or whenever you and I called each other, you would always ask me if I was listening to Gerome; I would always say, I'm the oldest, and you would still laugh like it was your first time hearing me say that. I always felt like that was our little special thing.

I remember when I got married here in Huntsville, you were here at my wedding. Well, it wasn't much of a wedding; we got married in the pastor's study. It was mom, dad, and you (my Uncle James).

Your relationship with dad made you my Uncle James. You were like a brother to him.

Rest In God, Uncle James; you will be greatly missed. I Love You!!

“ Sharing love and condolences to my cousin James Anthony's family. He was a man I got to know over the past 7 years, and glad I did. He was my source to learn more about my mom's childhood and her ancestors. I loved laughing and talking with him. He was a smooth dressing dude, who I really admired. I miss you my friend, and I know we will meet up again someday.

“ Dear cousin James may you rest in peace. I know the future will be forever changed without you but your wonderful presence among us will last always. Thank you for your caring nature, the laughs, the many trips over to the farm, Mississippi and all the many home-cooked meals and family gatherings we shared with you. James truly knew everyone and never met a stranger. Our lives are richer because you were in it. Family let's hang on, hold on and be strong. "There is no pain on earth that heaven cannot heal".

“ My sharp dressing, always in the wind, kind family man, Daddy. I love you so much and I will miss you always. Thank you for being a part of my Black History quilt. Enjoy the reunions, I'll see you down the road.

Stephanie Holmes - February 23 at 01:03 PM

“ Daddy I'm gonna miss you so much. Our daily talks even when it became a struggle you still fought through to make it happen. The daily "How's Des" and the rest of your family. Always concerned about everyone else's wellbeing. We're going to be all right because you instilled in us everything we need to walk this life's journey with Jesus at the helm. I'm comforted when I imagine the Heavenly Reunion it must have been. I Love You Daddy but I know God Loves you more than I ever could. And though my heart is sad. I can smile through the tears thinking of our many memories we shared. I'll see you later.

“ Uncle James was an amazing, kind-hearted and energetic man. I feel blessed that God allowed him to be a part of my life. He will be missed.

Ruby Trice - February 22 at 08:01 PM

“ Uncle James showed me what it really means to love family. He had unconditional love, and was always concerned about family members. He heard that I had been sick and called to check on me. He will always be in my heart. I am praying for you.
