

Lee Barrett Burns

July 13, 1984 - June 9, 2018

Lee Barrett Burns, 33, of Florissant, Missouri, passed away June 9, 2018. Lee was born July 13, 1984 in St. Louis, the son of Diane (Markovich) Burns and the late Barrett Burns; brother of Ryan (Beth) Burns; grandson of Margaret Burns.

Lee worked as a bartender where he put his charismatic and caring personality to good use. He never met a stranger and had a natural ability to make others laugh, even if it was at his own expense. After the shortest encounter, Lee was unforgettable, whether it was his size, tattoos, or contagious smile. He will be greatly missed.

Lee was preceded in death by his father, Barrett Burns; his maternal grandparents, John and Vinita Markovich; and his paternal grandfather, Jack Burns.

A celebration of life has been scheduled from 6 to 10 p.m. on July 13, 2018. Food and drink will be provided at the VFW Reception Hall, 10817 Midland Boulevard, Overland, MO 63114. No outside alcohol allowed.

“ Lee would always make you smile. If I walked in the room he was at, he would try to give me a grumpy face, but typically could not keep serious and it would turn into a smile very fast. Being one of Dale's best friends, he always was like a big brother to me. If you needed anything, he was there to help. After Dale's accident he was one of the first ones who wanted to be by his side. I could always count on him to make me smile. We would talk about the most ridiculous things, like our dogs becoming boyfriend and girlfriend and how to trick Dale into eating more vegetables. He will always stay within our memories!
