

Aaron D. Simpson

September 8, 1992 - December 21, 2017

Aaron D.M. Simpson, Age 25 of Spanish Lake, MO.

Aaron was born on September 8, 1992, in St. Louis, Missouri. He graduated from North Technical High School where he earned an EPA 608 certification, and went on to attend Ranken Technical College. He thoroughly enjoyed working in the field of Heating, Ventilation & Air Conditioning. His infectious smile and witty sense of humor brought joy and laughter to everyone he knew. His siblings describe him as their “protector.”

Aaron was very fortunate to have two fathers that loved him deeply, Donnell Simpson and Chadwick Farrell. He is also survived by his mother, Rhonda Riggins-Farrell, two siblings (Cameron and Madison Farrell), maternal grandparents (James and Lisa Riggins), maternal great grandparent (Thelma Griffin), paternal grandparents (George and Rosalind Farrell, and Carlo Simpson), his fiancé' and the love of his life (Arriell Porter) and their two dogs (Blu and Bella), and a host of other family members and close friends that will miss him dearly.

Aaron studied the Bible over the course of his lifetime. Although he did not dedicate his life in service to God, he understood the meaning of life and God's original purpose for mankind. Our hope rests in seeing him again by means of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We also look forward to a time when God will “wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more...” (Revelation 21:4)
