“ Anthony!i can't believe you're gone! We lived across the street and next door from each other for years. you gave me my first and last motor cycle ride. when I was pregnant with my first child, you used to bring me burger king's whoppers. i met my first love at your house! you were a true friend and you will be missed. love you brother and friend.Rest in Peace. My dear cousin, you were such a big part of my childhood. Missing you feels unreal even though we were miles apart. My household prays that yours keep you close in mind & heart....as only we can forever.
