“ Lisa and Sheila, cherish the memories; the love, laughter and joy. When I think of her, I think of the fun we had as kids and hope that she and Moma (Mrs. Lewis) are laughing in Heaven. Luv you girls

“ My Grandmother was an angel and from the time I was a child up until I became the man I am today she has been nothing less. She was always kind to people she didn't have a mean bone in her body. She was always in a positive and upbeat mood no matter what was going on, and it didn't matter what one had done or how bad it was she was always forgiving of them. She loved us all unconditionally and that's all we could ask for because that's just how she was. She was my protector a bunch of times, even when I was in the wrong (just ask my mother about the broom) she was the one person I was always happy to see because she made me smile. Now, she's going home to be with Grandpa, and Kevin and that's where God wanted her be. Now, I just want to say that Granny I love you, and I miss you, and I will never forget you

Sincerely,
Your grandson Randy Dukes Jr.

“ Grandma, we are missing you girl, & our love for you won't ever leave our hearts. I'm sitting here thinking, when I would always see you I would always ask you were you working yet. Your response was always "naw, not yet but I want to". Had no idea, that you would have the highest, & most valuble one yet, right up there with GOD. I hope it's all you ever thought it would be... Loving you forever always, your baby Binky..

“ Don't spend too much time in mourning. Tears are for the sad. Mom left to be with Jesus, this should make you glad. Dont waste your hours grieving no need to feel distressed. Mom has lived her life and now and has gone to rest. Don't loose the love she gave you feed it with your care. Grow it with devotion and spread it every where. Don't burden yourself with questions or try to reason why. God has placed a period on life that will never die. Love always

I am very saddened to not have met such a beautiful person! I was named after her. I happened upon this website that I can't find at the moment and zero in on her occupation, I gasped we shared the same occupation. And am very successful. I guess in some ways we are a lot alike. I hope to meet you one day Pamela. I will try and Facebook you if that's okay. All the best to you and your Family Marissa Beatrice Dernbach (Aka) Bebe Dukes.

“ Listening to the stories that were shared with us by Terri made me feel as if we were all on the journey with her. The good times and the not-so-good were just a small testament to the kind of woman who raised such strong women. My heart goes out to you, Terri and the Dukes family. We will surely miss "Shug"!
Love you Terri!!

“ In Memory of My Grandma Shug!

*If I only had more time, just one more day,
I would have had time to tell you all the things I needed to say.*

*I never got to tell you how much you mean to me,
Or that you were the best grandmother, mother, and teacher to me.*

*The last time that I talked to you
I wish I would have known.
I would have said I love you,
and kept you on the phone.*

*If I only had a few more hours, or minutes,
the night you passed away,
I'd give you one last hug so tight and see your great big smile.
I'd stay and watch "Little House on the Prairie" for awhile.
Then I'd kiss your cheek and take your hand and tell you it's okay to go
And tell you that I'll miss you,
more than you'll ever know.*

*But you were gone so quickly,
A few hours later one more breath you would make.
Before you even knew it,
you were standing at heavens gate.*

*Now God and Grandpa has called upon you,
It's time to get your wings.
To leave this life behind you,
And enjoy all of heavens beautiful things.*

*So wait for me in heaven Grandma and tell papa too,
Don't let me come alone.
The day the angels come for me,
Please be there to bring me home.*
