“ Free, your hurt is unimaginable. The relationship you and Ms. Betty had was beautiful.

I remember Ms. Betty being consistent in who she was. She was always pleasant, kind, and caring in the most genuine way.

But most of all, she was always about the business of Freda, Justin, Kya and Taylor! Allow her love and memories to be the solace that you need to get you through your most difficult moments.

I love you Free.

“ Betty and I worked many years together and the friendship continued after the leaving of or jobs. Betty and I had lunch together almost everyday while we worked together. , went to play Bingo on the East side , because Bingo was not legal here yet. . We were one of the few that dressed up for Halloween for work. She was dressed as a super Woman and to this day I can see her in the costume. . She will always be that in my eyes. May the Lord comfort us as we grieve your passing. You have been called home, your work has been completed here on earth. Miss you.

“ Six years ago I had the privilege of meeting Ms. Jones and she was one of the sweetest, most caring people that I know ❤️ Im going to miss hearing her say “Hiiii Jerrryyy” lol actually she was one of the first people to call me Jerry and that will forever be dear to my heart 💜 But I have this confidence in knowing that to be absent in the body is to present with the Lord 🙏 So even though you aren't here with us I know that you're resting in the arms of the Lord and well see you in the morning 😊🙏❤️

“ Betty Jones is my first cousin. She use to take me to the movies downtown at the Stadium theater. I know she loves her pickles and sunflower seeds. She also sold me my first car for 300 bucks, back in the day, a red Apolla. Later the vehicle was name by my friends as the red tomato. That car got me around st louis, even made it to Cape Girardeau, MO a couple of times.
Betty, you will be missed, and i appreciate the time that i spent with you,

To the family of Ms. Betty Jo Jones who is a part of my family. We shared games, conversations and toys as young teens. I remember so many weekends traveling from Paducah to St. Louis for a visit. She was a very special individual with such warm and charming qualities. Memories of her and her family will always bring a 😊 as I remember their hospitality. Sadden by the lost of such a jewel I am praying that God will comfort and give you peace during this time. God blessings

“ Ms. Betty, I called you granny myself because you would treat me as your own. You have seen me grow up ever since I was 8 and I wish you have seen how much I’ve grown up before you left. But now you can see me up there and continue to become the adult I need to be. You was always there and always allowed me into your home. Very positive and always had peace loving through her. I felt like I was part of the family while growing up with Kya and Taylor. You made me laugh and I would enjoy helping you out and listening to your jazz. You have influenced me to listen to jazz and I would always think of you when I play it.

“Granny,
This is my favorite picture of us. I feel like it details the relationship we had. We were the best of friends, the closest 2 you could ever find. We talked about any and everything and bonded over so much. Losing you is the most difficult thing I've had to face. I am missing you so much already. Though I know I won't have to walk this path alone. You're still with me in spirit and that I must remember. Thank you for all the memories, the lessons, the good times, and of course the countless laughs. You're now at peace and resting. It's a forever thing granny, I love you.

“ The last time we spoke you told me to keep pushing forward to my goals. It was you who made me feel that anything i want to accomplish I very well can. You were and always will be the strongest soldier i know. I still wake up feeling like i should be filling your insulin and making sure you get up and eat. You showed me what love, selfless service, and compassion is. I will remain strong because i know you'd want me to. The lord has called you home and i understand now. Thank you for those late conversations of calmness and motivation. Thank you for being there for the family and loving us the way you did. And thank you for being a symbol of peace. Hey i even got a tattoo , i know how much you didn't like them haha but this one is beautiful and it just reaffirms that you will always be with me. I love you grandma.

“Mama, I know you're here with me, I feel you all over me you even knocked over some of my stuff in my room making it clear to clean up the unnecessary clutter, but I'm going to be so lost without you. You loved me from the moment you knew you were carrying me. I know love because of you, I know what being caring looks like because you did that! Rest honey, no more pain, no more insulin, no more worries about anything! I got the kids we are going to be fine! I'm sorry I forgot to give you the pickles I bought you, I kept leaving them on my counter and when I'd go to your house I'd say I gotta remember to get them to mama. My dearest mama, you were and are my world and I yours, people envied our bond but all I know is my heart goes out to anyone that didn't get the chance to experience what I had in you. We have so many memories, so many good times and bad but your strength carried us through! Thank you mama thank you for doing things your way! You are free and so am I. Forever will I love you and make you proud. Your one and ONLY Freda!
