“ We were so sorry to learn of Brad's death. We hadn't seen Brad in several years, and only learned that he'd died when our most recent newsletter was returned. Brad was one of our valued Life Members. God bless and comfort his friends and families.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Brad for the last 5 years at Cooper. He actually was a part of the panel that interviewed me for my first job at Cooper, and I'll always remember how glowingly he referred to his family in that interview despite the fact that we were complete strangers at the time. I later had the opportunity to travel to Europe with Brad and a small group of others. Memories from of our adventures on that trip, and fearing for my life as a passenger of a car driven by Brad on the way to the airport will forever be with me.

Brad is very much missed, and will live on in our fond memories. My deepest condolences to the entire family.

“ Brad was one of my managers at Smurfit. The other was Dan Paulda. Some of my best memories are of picking at one or the other of them or watching them pick at each other. Brad was one of the kindest people I know. He cared about his employees and friends. He recognized and rewarded hard work and talent regardless of job titles. He was an inspiration for how to treat others. My deepest sympathies to the Weihl family
Thank you for sharing him with us.

“ *Heartfelt sympathy to the Weihl family for your profound loss. Brad was our payroll manager at Smurfit and a great one at that. He was hardworking, clever, genuinely caring, a selfless leader always putting his team first. We were spoiled. The man loved Payday candy bars. If it wasn't for Brad I wouldn't been able to work remotely while my husband was hospitalized for 6 weeks. He will always have a special place in our heart. God's peace & comfort to Cindy, Ben, Rachel, Bart, and Brad's mom.

“ Had some great times with Brad, Cindy and the kids over the years. Ben still reminds me of the time we went boating at Mark Twain Lake and I threw them all off the tube. Thought I would share a photo I took of Brad while we ate lunch at our favorite spot in Creve Coeur, MO (GCs). Love you guys and just know Brad, Cindy and the entire Weihl family all of you are in my prayers.

“ The entire Weihl family will always be a part of the fabric of my upbringing. I have been so blessed to have them in my life and learned so much from them not only by having going to school with both Brad and Bart from McNair to Hazelwood West, and also being in Scouts with them as wonderful and gracious mentors, always opening up their home and making anyone feel welcome... but also from getting a glimpse to see from near (Blackfoot Park) and afar what a loving and caring family they are. Brad was so smart and I respected him greatly.
