

Carolyn Joyce Flood

August 24, 1959 - November 24, 2025

Carolyn Flood of Spanish lake Missouri passed away on November 24th 2025 She is proceeded in death by her parents, her brother Donald Hauk, her partner John j lamacchia and her grandson Reggie Hamblin.

She has survived by her brother's Brad and Harry Snead by her daughter Heather Flood, her grandchildren Jeffrey full moon Grasshoff and Laura Hardwick, Craig and Heather Sutberry, Samantha Sutberry and Shawn, her great grandchildren Kayle Butler, Savannah Sutberry, Landon Sutberry, and grand puppies Juice and Simba. She's also left behind her beloved Toby and Kitty kitty.

Carolyn had a strong personality that left a lasting impression on everyone she met she loved to feed both people and animals whenever she could she enjoyed bowling gardening arts and crafts and dressing up for the award shows and watching them with her friends and neighbors. She loved dunking popcorn in her Kool-Aid while watching movies and even owned her own movie rental outfit at one time. For quite a few years she spent almost every weekend at Indian springs camping as a former girl scout leader she was always completely prepared and had everything needed, when the family got together she insisted on board games and a table filled with finger foods and bowls of assorted candy. Everyone in the community knew her well as she worked for Dollar general and carried a conversation at every business she entered, she enjoyed Keno while shopping at the grocery store and will forever be remembered for the village under her Christmas tree. Although she was opinionated that's exactly why most loved her and the majority of her friends were friends.

she has had her entire life and she will be missed by all.

At her request there is not going to be a formal service but her immediate family plans to gather together soon and will send out invites at a later date.
