“ Too many memories to fit here. Kate and Jack always made me feel welcome in their home growing up. Lot of laughs, good food (chocolate cake and BBQ), and love. Kate always treated me like one of her own, which is why I consider John the brother I never had. Sincere condolences in this sad time, but happy memories of the good times and the belief that Kate is at last reunited with Jack.

“ My memory of Aunt Kate is that every single time we were together she never failed to make me laugh! She was so much fun and I love her very much. She will be greatly missed!

“ Dear Mom, you were not only a wonderful caring mother you were my best friend. You were my shopping buddy every weekend. You helped me paint, wallpaper and tile mine and Sam's first house, such patience you had. You always gave me a shoulder to cry on, which I really need right now. You took care of the love of my life (Tony) while I worked, and I always knew he was well taken care of and loved each day. I have a whole in my heart now that you are gone. I promise that I will take care of Dede. I will miss you mom.
