

Charles Henry Johnson Sr.

February 8, 1942 - October 2, 2013

Charles Henry Johnson was born in Marion, Arkansas to Robert and Willie Johnson. He was educated in South Bend, Indiana and during that time he met the love of his life Bobbie Sowell. The two of them married July 6, 1965 and spent 48 loving, happy years together. He accepted Christ as his personal savior at an early age. The Family moved to St. Louis, MO. He was employed at Boeing until his health failed. He loved sports, fine clothes and collecting unique items. He was a loving father and grandfather. Left with precious memories to cherish are his wife Bobbie, children Carla (Nathaniel) Rodgers, Jacqueline Couzart, Charles, Jr. and Kim (Kola) Adeyinka; grandchildren Jasmine (Travis) Brown, Kyler and Kaleb Robinson, Kirstan Mack and Jakayla Bailey; siblings Benjamin (Jackie) Johnson-Washington, D.C., Johnnie Johnson-South Bend, IN, Cleveland Johnson-Texas, Patricia (Larry) Evans-Niles, MI, and the entire Johnson-Clay Family, other relatives and friends.

“ Aunt Bobby I love you. Jackie, Carla, Kim, Chuck I love you all. Wished that I could be there for you all, but God has blessed me to be apart of a movement here. I have to get prepared for a few performances coming up and I was on the radio yesterday. Yay! God is good all the time. I will miss Uncle Charles, but he is with our Lord and Savior with a new body. No more suffering and no more pain. Hallelujah!! I leave you with these scriptures to meditate on. To God be the glory! Amen

2 Corinthians 5:1

1 For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Philippians 3:20-21

20 But our commonwealth is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power which enables him even to subject all things to himself.

“ What can I say, Charles was Charles "Moon" Johnson. Unique in his own way. Always had a joke for you, even if you had to figure it out later..... We love you brother n law but God loved you more and has called you home to rest. To my family, my big sister continue to keep your hands in God's hands and he will see you through. Weeping endure for a night,.....but Joy comes with the morning light. RIP big brother!!!! Loving you all so very much!!!!

“ My fondest memory is you never said much but when you spoke you were heard! I remember you embracing moms family and your own family to stay with us until they got on their feet! Most of all I enjoyed the Veteran Village on Natural Bridge I remember finding me some Jordache jeans and a Mohair sweater! You didn't like nothing cheap! I will always cherish my Tiffany bracelet you found in someone's trash I wear it every day! RIP your children will stick together and take of Mommy!
