“ Clarence, Doonie, Lamelda, Greg and I met in our teen years. It was truly a blast from the past. We laughed, played, and grew together. We have so many memories together and I don't even know where to begin. I feel fortunate to have known him these last decades of life. He was a nice guy and a good friend. It makes me so sad to know he is no longer a phone call away. It's heart breaking to know Greg and I can't stop by for a few laughs and share old memories when we come in town. He will be truly missed. Hopefully our paths will cross again on the perly streets of heaven. May God bless his family and friends and may they mourn well.
Sincerely,
Greg & Shirley Brown
