“ It is always hard to say something that is respectful and sincere during this time. As a friend who had the privileges of being a part of the memories that Curtis and Diane created with each other. I can say that for the smiles on her face

thru the photo's she shared with me or the joy, I heard in her voice when I spoke to her thru a text or phone call, I knew they were happy enjoying each other.

On the day I was present at their celebration of becoming as one, I witnessed the Love, they shared with each other. I say this with all my Love , for the memories that you all got to make with Curtis keep this thought in mind he would want each of you to continue to be happy so remember with every tear you may shed try thinking of something Curtis may have said or done that made you laugh. This will hopefully bring you some comfort as you take a step day by day to continue your journey with living so he can in spirit always be with you.

Love Always TWB
