“ I will always remember when Curtis spent an entire day helping me plant flowers in my yard. I will always smile when I look at them. I believe only angels help to plant flowers. I will miss him dearly.

“ My heart is still sad to know we will not share early Saturday morning talks across the deck, you teaching me how to make my grass look like yours, you sharing me your wisdom to help me navigate the teen years with my son and all the other talks we shared. In 5 short years you became family and I will truly miss seeing your smiling face and our talks.

“ I had the honor and privilege to sing beside and share a stage with this inspiring, kind, enthusiastic, encouraging, happy, joyful man. We had many uplifting and personal conversations. I can't imagine In Unison Chorus without his energy and laughter, his unique spirit, and the way he could shout hallelujah!

I loved to hear Curtis sing his solo in the Hallelujah Chorus with the In Unison Chorus. Curtis and I always shared a hug after each rehearsal and performance. He shall be greatly missed by me. My prayers go out to his family.

“ I was so saddened to learn of Curtis's passing. He left us way too soon. I had the privilege of working with Curtis at McDonnell Douglas for 18 years. I never heard him speak a bad word about anybody. He was well respected by all who knew him. My condolences to Curtis's family and friends. It's not goodbye Curtis, it's I'll see you later.

“ I worked with Curtis for many years at McDonnell Douglas. Then, after nearly 20 years out of town, I came back to STL and joined In Unison, When I walked into the first rehearsal, there was Curtis. We remembered each other instantly. What a nice guy. So sorry to hear he is gone.
