“ I knew Denitra through my mom who was one of her best friends . I was only 10 at the time of her death, and her death was on my birthday. My favorite memory was one day my momma drove Denitra to her apartment and she let me play with her cat. She was such a beautiful person and a great friend. Miss her dearly

“ Were do i start sis ? it's been over a year im still dealing with this. From 6th grade through h.s you were one of my best friends and sister from us walking to the store getting giant gum balls to the mayday parade getting nelly shirt and fighting over it lol . You were smart , funny and FULL OF LIFE .last time i seen u, u gave me the warmest bear hug ily and miss u sooo much sis. you called my mother your mom and your mom was mines and she still is all im left with is memories of us growing up and having some of the best moments our lives. sisters for life and even in death saying rip in front of your name doesn't even sound right to me sis. One day we will meet again and it will be me running to you giving u the longest warmest bear hug love you always and forever sis <3 ~ Sierra D. (CC)

“ Denotes,
You were always sweet and kind to me, I appreciate that. You were extremely smart and always reading. You were too sweet for this harsh and cold world. Unfortunately, I was not able to obtain the information for your homegoing. I wish I could have said my goodbyes properly. I will visit your resting place soon. I will ALWAYS LOVE and APPRECIATE your spirit.

ALL MY LOVE,
