My fondest memory of my Aunt "Moodie", was many years ago when I was a teenager. I looked up to my Aunt, as she was beautiful and always had a ready answer to any questions that I had about life. I was a girlie girl and loved girlie things. At the time, ladies were having their eyebrows arched and my greatest desire was to have mine done. One weekend, I saw my Aunt Moodie and she had arched eyebrows! I was so excited and said they looked great and asked, who did them? She said, I did! I was delighted and asked if she would do mine and she agreed. She told me to come to her house the next weekend and she would do the brows. That next Saturday, I was on her doorsteps! We visited a while; me, following her around, as she did her chores. When she got a free moment, she said, step right up. I bounced into that chair! She skillfully used a razor blade to arch my eyebrows. They looked fabulous!! I said, "How am I going to keep them looking like this?" She said, you can use a razor blade or tweezers. I opted for tweezers. I knew I could not use a razor blade on my eyebrows without causing significant damage to myself! Each day, I would use the tweezers and pluck the brows, to ensure I kept the same arch pattern. I am still following that same pattern, today!! Thank you, my dear Aunt! I love and appreciate you, your life, your life work, who you are spiritually and physically. Rest in peace dear-one, you will always live in my heart all the days of my life!! May God Bless your family's hearts with peace. Love Always, your niece, Sharon Gatewood
