OBITUARY

Elizabeth Ann Coleman was born in Earle, Arkansas on December 29, 1953 to Amanda and Leroy Coleman Sr. The family moved to St. Louis, Mo in 1957. Elizabeth attended St. Louis Public Schools and graduated from McKinley High School in 1970 and worked at BJC over 20 years and retired. Elizabeth was very known for being bossy and stubborn but also kind and loving and she wasn't afraid to let anyone know how she felt.

Her parents; brothers, Sam and Joseph Norise, Luther L Coleman; sister, Lillie Mae Coleman and nephew; Tony Wilson preceded her in death.

Elizabeth leaves to cherish her memory: one child - Arletra Lotts - one granddaughter - Montrese Hoskin; four siblings; Leroy Jr., Robert, Bishop and Whitney; a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Acknowledgement

The family of Elizabeth Ann Coleman wishes to express our most sincere appreciation of sympathy and support from our family during our time of bereavement. You have lifted our hearts with prayers and acts of kindness. Thanks to all.

Words from her daughter

To My Mom

I love you, for all that you have done, for your wisdom and kindness, your patience and generosity and for always believing in me. You are the biggest gift God has given me. I'm so lucky to have had you as my mom.

Love your daughter

“ Granny I miss you so much there’s not a day that goes by that I don’t think about you. I miss your laugh, I miss your smile, I miss you fussing at everyone and it was always out of love even though we may not have understood that at the time. What I would give to just hug you and squeeze your peanut head. I miss your random phone calls and being able to just hear you go on and on for hours about stories you have told me a million times before. It’s been hard and very strange in this earth without you. I promise I’ll do my best to be strong because I know that’s what you would want me to do, and I promise to hold on tight to mom because she needs me. She miss you and papa so much, and at times granny I don’t know what to do but just hug her and hold on tight to her. I love you so much little lady and I hope you know/knew that. Love your grand baby
