“ My grandpa and I hold a special connection. I'm grateful to have inherited his looks and confidence. From the time I met him till the last time I saw him , he never changed , he was always his loving self ! He was so full of life , even in his illness . Whenever I visited him a few months ago in the hospital, he just kept saying how he wish he was home (his earthly home), but I sit here months later and thank God for bringing him home (his heavenly home) because he is no longer suffering !!! I'll forever be his “GRAY EYES “ and I thank God for blessing me with these eyes because I'll forever be reminded of him . I love you grandpa RIP

“ My dad is so dear to my heart. He was my confidant, a great encouragement, and he knew how to handle me with special care. He just knew when I needed his fatherly advice and he advised me on many subjects. I will miss our frequent dialogues. I will miss his attentive listening. Hearing his voice on my saved voicemails has brought comfort since his passing. Love you dad and I miss you so so much!
