I remember a day 20+ years ago when I was getting married to Darryl McKnuckles Uncle Elvie got off work wedding morning and put tarp down and set up my tables so my wedding would be will wonderful. It was just that. I saw him at St. Mary's one night with a inmate and wouldn't you know it it was my anniversary and I told h do you know it's my anniversary today and he said with a grin really? I'll always remember it.

“ To say that Elvie and I had a very special brother to brother relationship would be a huge understatement. The two of us having friendly sports debates while joyriding with no destination will be missed tremendously. Major sporting events will never be the same to me without having Elvie here to critic everything that happens. He was a very competitive person that gave 100% to his every endeavor. We were all blessed to have had the most loving and caring son, father, brother, uncle and friend in our lives. My thoughts and prayers goes out to his wife LaJoyce, she was at his side until God called him home. LaJoyce, I will always be here to render any support you need.

“ It was a blessing to have had "Elvie" (my little brother) in my life and I will miss him terribly

To LaJoyce, Jasmine, Sonia, & Tracie, my heart goes out to you. Take comfort in knowing that his suffering is over. Please know that I am here for you.

To my mom, there are no words that can ease your pain. Stay strong in your faith in God and he will help you find comfort and courage to get through this trying time. Elvie is at peace now. All my love to you mom

“ Dear brother,
As I spent those last hours with you prior to you joining dad I hope you felt my love and the comfort I gained knowing you have joined dad in a place of everlasting peace. I love you ❤️.

To my brother Elvis, may you rest in peace, I will always remember the talks you and I had about life, starting that business we talked about and the time you were about 12 years old when you cried cause you couldn't go down the street to give your friend some popcorn. I love you, miss you, rest in peace
