“Ernestine was such a wonderful friend and Christian. It was my privilege to her accompany her many times when she sang special music at the South Side Church. We had such good times practicing together--talking and sharing. Her love of Christ and her faithfulness to Him were evident and an example to all. I miss her. (from Sylvia Anderson)

She substituted as a teacher at the Lexington SDA Church School when I was a boy. She never raised her voice, and was an exemplary Adventist woman. She came from a good SDA family and background. I hope to see her standing by the River Jordan in the New Jerusalem.

To the Family of Ernestine Readus Goodrich,

Only the darkness of the night can reveal to us the lovely stars above, so it is in the dark hour of sorrow that God reveals his love, mercy and grace. Although you may walk through the valley of the shadow of death, you need not to fear evil. God is with you.

We wish to extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your beloved. Today as her life is celebrated, this is a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon the blessing she has been to you, and the precious memories you have to cherish during her appointed time.

Noted author Ralph Waldo Emerson states: “The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful, to be honorable, to be compassionate, to have it make some difference that you have lived and lived well.”

It is our prayer that God will give you strength for the days ahead. Look to Him for comfort and consolation for earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. “For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.” Be encouraged knowing God promised he would never leave us nor forsake us, and on difficult days, claim his promise:

*“Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed;
for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee;
yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.”
Isaiah 41:10*

Therefore, family be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. If there is anything we can do to help, feel free to call on us.

Prayerfully submitted,

*Northside Seventh-Day Adventist Church

“ Joy in Earnestine's smile, the radiant glow about her, the warmth she shared made your life better. Thank you for being so kind. The Joy you had was contagious. May you rest well after a life of labor. Your strength of heart and mind overshadowed the frailness of your body. You empowered others with your sweet gentleness. Rest now in the arms of your Savior that will keep you eternally with him in heaven.

Your Sister in Christ,
Jeanette White

“ My dear precious aunt will be truly missed. I remember all the fun times she and I shared as I was growing up. The trips to Marshals and Goldies. I remember the little aqua colored Duster she drove. I loved seeing that car pull up because I knew time well spent with my aunt was about to happen. Ernestine was an awesome Sabbath school teacher at South Side Seventh Day Adventist Church. She geared the youth and always had fun things planned. Trips to Wet Willy's, Six Flags, apple picking, sleep overs only to mention a few were some of the activities planned. Aunt Ernie, I would call her was the one who captured my interest in cooking. She taught me how to make green bean casserole, and I've been cooking it every since. And a song bird my aunt was, that operatic voice would ring throughout the church...at home in the mirror I would play church and try to sing like her. LOL! Those were the days...where you never thought thirty some years down the road that that person would not be apart of your world anymore. Did you all know my aunt named me? Zannette Adrienne Robinson. She would always tell me Adrienne was French and she would pronounce it in French. My aunt was a women of pizzazz...kind of rubbed off on me a little. LOL! But most of all my aunt loved the Lord and she taught me spiritual things as well. I guess I followed in her footsteps as well because I use to teach Sabbath school at Ebenezar and I taught drama at Northside years ago. Point is I really enjoyed working with the youth and we had fun, just like she did. She enjoyed the youth. Her influence rubbed off on me. My aunt touched many youth lives. Towards the end she would always say "It is well with my soul". So even though my heart misses her, it is well with my soul because one day when Christ returns and calls forth for the righteous, she will rise and see her Maker face to face. And that is when the true meaning of "it is well with my soul" will ring true because her old body will be replaced with a new and perfect body and she will be reunited with her loved ones that remained faithful to the Lord. Rest my sweet Aunt Ernie, until we meet again...Love your niece Zannette Adrienne Robinson-Richards.

Love you and your family so much, my condolences, thoughts and prayers are with you and yours, from me and mine. My mom is still so sad, but she knows she is in a better place. God saw fit for her to not suffer anymore, so now she is at peace. May the Lord bring healing and oease to your family.. Love you. The Mimbs Family

*I am truly thankful fo the "Precious Time" that the Lord allowed us to have Ernestine with us. I will always hold dear the memories of our time spent together in conversation, and simply talking about the "goodness of the Lord", But of all, I look forward to the "great getting up morning" when all who sleep in the grave shall hear the voice of the KING of kings, And shall come forth to live eternally with the Lord, And will see my Sister again. So to the family I would say, go ahead, let the tears flow, for truly we will all miss Ernestine more than words can say. But just remember, that this is only a "pit stop" Our Lord Jesus Christ, called death a "sleep" But just know that we will see our beloved Ernestine again. God bless and keep you all.
