“ From the time i met your son,you were the most understanding person. you always had a smile. Remebering the time we went out together, when you came over to get your hair done,you came over to support my daughter leaving for college,and the Mary Kay party at my house. you will be missed, but you now have the best seat in the house. I look forward to sitting next to you in time to come.Peace is where you are,rest in it.
Love from CORRI,CAURIE AND CORTEZ.

“ My Sister; when I think of the years growing up together, sharing the same bed, chopping and picking cotton, wearing the same clothes, riding the yellow school bus to school; I can truly say that we shared a bond that cannot be broken by death or no other being. Every time I came to St. Louis and made it to Rosetta's house, you were the first to arrive and the last to leave. Those times will never be the same, but you and those memories will always be in our hearts. Rest in peace Sis. I will see you at the great family reunion.

Love, your sister, Bobbie (Leanna)
