My cousin Eula Mae was as gracious as she was beautiful. I had the privilege of visiting Prescott, AR, with my Grandma Abbey when I was twelve and we stayed at her parents Wade and Stella's home. Wade, Eula Mae and Ruthell we're wonderful hosts to me, being a city girl, everything was new, farm, animals and you name it, I will never forget their hospitality and kindness. I saw Eula at a family reunion some years ago and she was as gracious and beautiful as ever. Much love to the family.

“ Sending Hugs with all my Love to our family. Auntie was special to me. I loved her and I would stay in contact with her with Christmas cards and phone calls down through the years. Sometimes she would stay at our home whenever she was in Dallas. We are going to miss you Auntie Eula. R.I.P
