

Glenn Harvey

May 28, 1978 - April 30, 2013

Glenn Cornell Harvey was born on May 28, 1978 to William Harvey and Rose Marie Luckett. His father preceded him in death.

Glenn started school at a very young age at 4 1/2 . He started the early education program at Kinloch Smith School. He then attended El Cajun Valley Union School District in San Diego, California. He was awarded a certificate of promotion, completed the prescribed elementary school course of study. In 1992, he began middle school in the state of Texas. Glenn later attended McCluer North High School and was awarded a certification of completion from the Ferguson-Florissant School District.

Glenn was known as “Slabo” , he was a loving and giving person, he enjoyed cooking indoors and outdoors. He loved to Bar-B-Que and he was good at it. He also loved to dance and had his own dance called “do the Slabo”. He was a very special guy. He loved to be there for others, his presence could make anyone love him and want to be around .

Glenn’s passion was buying and selling cars and being able to care for all his children. He enjoyed the company of family and friends and being the life of the party.

He leaves to cherish: his loving mother, Rose Clark; his grandmother,

Henryetta Lockett; his brothers, Eugene Kirk and John; his two daughters, Tasjae Harvey and Kelsey Harvey; his three sons, Kaine Robinson, Glenn Harvey, Jr. and Kameron Harvey; a host of aunts, great aunts, uncles, great uncles, cousins; one niece, Gia Marie Kirk; one nephew, Cameron Kirk and many friends and special loved ones.
