

Hugh "Peanuts" David Whalum Jr.

September 8, 1928 - December 25, 2019

Hugh David Whalum, Jr., was born September 8, 1928, in Memphis, Tennessee. He was a passionate musician, educator, husband, father of seven, grandfather (11), great-grandfather (15), brother, mentor, and friend.

"Peanuts," as he was affectionately known, possessed the rare mixture of intelligence, humility, and humor. Above all he was warm, cheerful, charitable and committed to music excellence — both instrumental and vocal.

For decades, Peanuts delighted audiences all over St. Louis and the United States with his musical performances, playing with greats such as Count Basie, Leontyne Price, Duke Ellington, and Nat "King" Cole. In 2014, Peanuts was inducted into the St. Louis Jazz Hall of Fame.

Veronica Freeland was the love of his life and cherished wife for nearly 70 years. To this union, seven children were born: David, Judy, Connie, Angela, Tony, Mary Beth, and Stephanie. He was preceded in death by his parents; his daughter, Judith Ann; his brothers Wendell Phillips, Harold Jamison and Kenneth Twigg; and his dear uncle and friend, Attorney/Judge Henry Leon Twigg (St. Louis). He was a proud member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

His dear sister, Rosemarie Whalum Pollard (Memphis), and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives, and friends will cherish and remember ALL of the blessed times and events shared with our special and beloved “Peanuts.”

“ I have thought of Hugh many times since leaving St. Louis over a decade ago. I will always be grateful for Hugh and Jeff providing a safe place for me to hear great music weekly as a single woman. He was a true gentleman. God's peace to the family as he now rests in peace.

“ Today, I tried to contact Peanuts and Veronica by phone, unsuccessfully, and searched the internet! I share your loss. I formed the Swingmasters 15-piece orchestra at Howard University in 1945 and Peanuts and I played trumpet. I have visited St. Louis and heard him sing with the piano and met his wife in the hotel lobby. I have met Kirk and have sung with the Wendell P Whalum choir at Morehouse College. I am a retired surgeon in Atlanta, GA and 93 years of age

“ My condolences to the entire Whalum Family. You may remember me as Denise Barfield, I was a classmate of Angela. It was always a highlight of mine when Mr. Whalum would sing during Mass at OLPH. I was honored he took the time to sing at my wedding. When he sang so many turned to watch him sing! He was that good! I think of him fondly. I wish peace and comfort to all of you. May the lasting memories Mr. Whalum gave to so many sustain you.

I remember Mr. Whalum, he was a real loving father and believed in loving others! He was church going 🙏 and I wished I could sing like he did! I had much love for his daughter Angela ❤️ . I moved away but I stop by to see her parents a few times after I left . I was thinking about them on Christmas and found out that Mr. Whalum had passed 😞 . I'm hurting and sorry for there lost ! My name is Arthur Gilwater (Bunny)
