“ I am fortunate to say that Jackie B. is part of so many happy memories of my youth. I counted her among my "adopted" family and was one of my "other" mothers. She taught me that everyone deserved respect, but it still needed to be earned and could be just as easily lost. Her example showed with determination, faith and grace there was nothing out of reach.

“ Jackie Roth was an incredible person. My mother Shirley McGhee and Jackie worked together in nursing at many places as well as Malcom Bliss (with the Bliss Gang) for many years. I know for a fact that our table had food on it because of Jackie when things got tight. She made Christmas time for us full of joy by picking up me and my brothers and sisters and taking us out shopping, eating and spending the night at her place watching movies with popcorn and just having fun. She had a look that was full of so many words she did not have to say, but you knew what she meant! I can truly say the McGhee family has been touched by an angel with having Jackie as a part of our lives.
