“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I will always treasure the memories of the many Saturday mornings we cruised around the neighborhood in Richmond Heights checking out garage sales and buying stuff we really didn't need and laughing our heads off. RIP Jackie.

“ Mrs. Coffey was such a beautiful, hilarious, warm, thoughtful and giving person. She had a beautiful infectious smile. She was our neighbor and my mother's best friend for many, many years. They went to church together, they went shopping together (everywhere), they traveled together, they shared so many stories about each other's lives and they will get buried next to one another. I know Mrs. Coffey is with my mother, along with her family and many other friends. She will be greatly missed. Enjoy the presence and comfort of God.

*Love,
