Jeanette Smith, 86 of St. Charles, MO

Jeanette Marie Smith, lovingly known as “Mommie,” passed away on March 24, 2026, at the age of 86. She was born in St. Louis, Missouri, to Geneva Brown and Joe Brown at Homer G. Phillips Hospital.

Jeanette was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Willie J. Smith, whom she married on December 24, 1954; her daughter Wanda; her granddaughters Kayla and Loretta; her brothers Wesley Brown, James Brown, Edward Brown, Louis Brown, and Lemme Brown; her sisters Arvolia Brown, Mae Brown, and Pauline Brown; her nephew Sherman Brown; and her niece Darlene Dunlap.

She was a devoted mother to Joyce (Joy), Wanda, Waylan, and Wayne (“Buddy”), and a proud grandmother to Alonzo, Alphonso, Lalani, Kevin, Devin, and Julian (“Cruz”). She is also survived by a host of loving nieces and nephews.

As the wife of an Air Force serviceman, Jeanette lived around the world, including England, Guam, the Philippines, and throughout the United States. She later dedicated her life to nursing, working at Bethesda, Christian Northwest, Christian Northeast, and DePaul Hospitals.

Jeanette was a faithful member of Southern Mission Baptist Church. She enjoyed blues and spiritual music, reading, playing pinochle, and spending time with family. She loved spring, dogs, Pepsi, and chocolate chip cookies.

Known for her strength, honesty, and wisdom, Jeanette lived by the belief: “Don’t let anyone treat you wrong—stand up for yourself.” Her legacy is one of love, resilience, and service.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
