

Jerome "Jerry" D. Estes

September 27, 1939 - November 16, 2024

Jerry was born in Taylorville, Illinois on Sept 27, 1939 to Jim and Mary Estes.

He died on Nov 16, at the age of 85.

After high school at Chaminade, he joined the United States Navy, and later married Carole Buesinger [Estes] in 1962.

After 35 years with L & N Railroad he retired as foreman.

In his spare time he enjoyed listening to music [even yodeling], he was huge fan of Jeopardy and trivia, and he loved relaxing on his pontoon boat.

Survivors include his current wife: Carmen Cool-Estes; one daughter Paige Estes- Luyenduk; Carole Bowen.

He was preceded in death by one daughter: Melissa Baker.

Services will be held at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery with full Military Honors sometime this Spring, and will be announced on this website.

Tribute Wall

DF

“ *Very sorry to hear of Jerry’s passing. Please accept our condolences to his family. We have many fond memories of his visits and appreciated his friendship.
Dave, Diane and Steve Finke.*

Dave and Diane Finke - November 27, 2024 at 08:39 AM

SB

“ Our sympathy to family members-it has been some time since I have seen the pard but he is forever etched in my memory-many fun times-always enjoyed his company, sincerely Mike and Sandy Buffa

Sandra Buffa - November 24, 2024 at 10:27 AM