“ As a little girl, I can remember spending time with Rita, the girls and Jerry! My mother and Rita were best friends and Jerry was what I considered a noble man! He was no nonsense and very genuine! I'm grateful to have been able to know them all especially the greatness of Jerry! Jerry you will be missed and I know you are in heaven now resting with my mama, your wife and others! God bless you Ria, Nakia and Janel! We love you all!!!

Jerry was my brother n law. He was married to my sister Rita. I remember meeting him for the first time. He came over to the house to see Rita and ended up helping my sister to babysit. I did something i wasn't suppose to do and he caught me and just gave me a look not saying a word. He was very quiet and so shy. I got to see him several hours before he left us. I prayed over him with the girls. When I finished, he opened his eyes and I had the feeling he was telling me thank you sis. Jerry tell my family to continue to look over us. I love you and you will greatly be missed.
