

Jesse Ray Hamilton

January 19, 1991 - September 28, 2023

Jesse Hamilton was born in St. Charles, Missouri to the late Glenn J. Hamilton and the late Kimberly K. Latta in early January of 1991. Since Jesse was born, he would light up a room when he came in, even over the years everyone would agree he had a heart of gold and never met a stranger. Jesse loved everything to do with nature, especially fishing, hiking, biking and canoeing. Anyone who knew Jesse knew that he was an athlete who loved playing football, baseball, and took part in wrestling and became a coach for all three sports.

Jesse took part in helping the community by working with the kids at the Applied Behavior Services in Wentzville, MO which he loved just for the sake of making an impact on their lives, as we all know Jesse did effortlessly. Jesse was a force to be reckoned with in the kitchen, taking after his parents when it came to gardening and bringing life to any plate he made. He loved cooking and worked with Friendship Brewery for years. When he was not working, you would find him listening to a variety of music and embracing every lesson that life had to offer, and never failed to find the good times in any situation. Jesse truly was a remarkable soul that lives on in the music we listen to, the words we read, and the good times we create.

Jesse is survived by his grandparents Leland and Ruth Miller and Samuel Bollinger. His legacy continues on through his three brothers Anthony J. Lococo, Nick M. (Amanda) Latta, and Trevor L. Latta and through his three sisters Katherine B. (Myles) Hamilton, Hallie R. Hamilton and Taylor R. (Nick)

Latta-Miller. Jesse is survived by many nieces and nephews Adrianna Hamilton, Aaliyah Hamilton, Aariah Jefferson, Ka'Lani Cooper, Luna Lococo, Dominic Lococo, Trace Lococo, Bohdon (Georgia) Lococo, Major Grant, Malakai Brown, Myles Jefferson, Jr., Makai Jefferson and Amir Katimi. Jesse is also survived by his girlfriend Michelle Elrod and her children Camille, Kennedy and Colin. As well as several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who became family. Jesse is also preceded in death by his grandparents Charles and Mary Hamilton, and his brother Michael Bollinger. He will be deeply missed.

“ Jess, some of my favorite moments with you were when we spending time outside just enjoying what Mother Nature has to offer. Especially when she offered up a big spider web for you to walk into. I will remember and cherish those moments for the rest of my life. I purchased a tree to be planted just for you. To make this world a little more green and happy, just like you would want.

*Our dearest Jesse... again, you are one of my favorite young men brought into my life through my daughter Krista. 🌹 you have been a wonderful friend, always there, beginning at our home in st.charles. You've been a great young man whom I adored, love your smile, beautiful eyes! We shared great conversations. So many special occasions with & for Krista, festivals, her 30th bday bash at the cabin, the float trips, The birth of her precious baby girl Prudence... we love you & our hearts will forever be less filled without you here. I'm so sad... continue to Live with your smiling spirit in the beautiful world beyond... we'll all see you on the other side 🤗💕 lots of hugs & love
