

John Dudley Mincher

August 16, 1956 - June 7, 2022

John Dudley Mincher, 65, of Florissant, Missouri, lost his battle with cancer on June 7, 2022.

Beloved father of Meagan L. Cross (James), Amber E. Huber (Andy), Kaela R. Shapiro (Mike), Justin D. Mincher, Ethan A. Ruch, Dakota L. Edmonds and Dalton L. Edmonds. Loving Grandfather of Mackenzie, Wyatt, Colton, Trent, Eli, Vivian and Sophia. Brother of Carol A. Hahn (Tony), Sharon L. Nigus (Monty), Braun A. Mincher (Teri), Brandon "Brandy" J. Ferner (Matt) and the late Bonnie J. Booth (Steve); son of John Jackson "Jack" Mincher (Barbara), and the late Bettye Alice England-Mincher; uncle, great-uncle, cousin and friend to many.

John was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps. He was a very active member of his church, the Joshua House and was a proud supporter of The Faithful Few. He loved this family and friends fiercely, and never went a day without speaking to as many of them as possible. He loved reading, beating others at scrabble, westerns, hunting, garage sales, auctions, motorcycles, classic cars, hot rods, Pepsi-Cola, Christmas, Hallmark Movies (he was such a softy), guitars, shooting pool, and listening to his record collection while sipping on an Amaretto Sour. His favorite time spent though, was surrounded with friends and family chatting, telling old stories and laughing away, especially his grandbabies! He conducted himself with unabashed faith, unending humor, and a zest to live his life to the fullest no matter what challenges crossed his path with perpetual optimism and a smile on his face.

“ My heartfelt condolences to all JD's family and countless friends. As high school sweethearts, he stole my heart in so many ways to express. I am forever grateful that our friendship lasted through 50+ years and that God granted me the chance to reconnect with him and pick up where we left things without missing a beat. He was an awesome Dad who bragged endlessly on his kids. He was a great friend who lifted me up many times with his humor, grace and love. I'll especially miss your hugs on Sunday the most. I know that a lot of life happened for both of us between high school and now which prevented us from getting back together as we had hoped would happen, but I know where you are and God be willing I will be able to spend an eternity with you. Until we meet again, rest comfortable my friend and save me a place at HIS table like you promised! Forever in my heart.

“ Knew him as "Pops" and he had such a amazing soul! Amazing smile and a good sense of humor. I never met him face to face but he became part of his daughter Meagan Tiktok world. I am forever grateful she share him with us and he knew he had another family who loved him dearly. He will be greatly missed but NEVER forgotten. He ilumaties so much through Meagan. Pops I know you're in the better place...just keep the porch light on up there so when you're family looks in the sky they know cause there hearts will guide them to yours! Much love to the whole family and grandkids...extra love Meagan Kennedy and Colton ☐ 🖤❤️
