“ I can't think of a sweeter, kinder man with a never ending contagious smile. He had such a great sense of humor that everyone loved. Both Lois and Jack are an extension of our family; always bringing fun, laughter and love. We had such great times when we all would be together. Jack you will be truly missed. Our love and condolences to you Lois. Love, Susie & Joe

“ Ten years Jack and my moms paths crossed. it was meant to be. A deep love evolved. Three and a half years ago they made it official as they said those beautiful words, I do, til death do us part. My brother and I were very lucky to have a second chance to have a loving father, ours had passed 20 years ago. How could you not love a man who loved your mother so much. I know life goes on, but I will always have that special place in my heart for such a sweet man who accepted my brother and I into his big heart.

*Love always,
Chris*

Jack was a wonderful man that I have missed seeing these last few years. He was kind, considerate and very much the gentleman. I loved his laid-back, easy nature and his light-heartedness. Thank You Jack for making my life sweeter by knowing YOU! My deepest condolences to Lois, Jack's family and all his friends.

“ To know Jack, was to always feel welcomed and loved by all that knew him. He and his wife Lois were so in love that it spilled over to everyone. Even when he got sick he was always cracking jokes and telling stories to make everyone else around him laugh. he was a fighter for sure hanging on for as long as he could, with the love, care and support of his wife Lois it made it easier for him to do so. I had spent the 6 weeks just before his death with them at their house in Florida helping them get settled in and it didnt matter what we were doing from watching tv to eating one of the deserts made by his step son David or trying to put him to bed when he got so frail, he always had a smile on his face and kept telling us thank you for taking such good care of him and that he loved us. sitting around the table he told stories of how lucky he was the day he met Lois which was only compounded the day they were married and his family grew to include hers. He will be sorely missed.

Love Always,

TJ

“ Paul and I have known Jack separately and together for many years. Our favorite memories are of the many gatherings, meals shared, fishing trips, hearing clubhouse stories, memories made and enjoying each others company. Jack would read the newspaper to Paul out loud from cover to cover while they sipped on coffee. We were welcomed into this family and are so appreciative. His happiness was apparent the day he married Lois, their joy and love was felt by all. They enjoyed life to the fullest until Jack's health recently deteriorated. He was so blessed to have a wonderful wife who took care of him in their home without complaint. He never wanted to go in a nursing home and she made sure that his wishes were fulfilled. We know Jack is looking down, smiling, knowing he made the best of his life. Our condolences go out to Lois, we are here for you. Please let us know if you need anything.

Love,

Paul and Sue Linck
