

Joseph Bell

April 13, 1944 - May 17, 2024

No obituary found for this tribute.

Cemetery Details

St. Peters Cemetery

2101 Lucas and Hunt Rd
St. Louis, MO 63121

Previous Events

Visitation

MAY 31. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

Mt. Airy Missionary Baptist Church
4700 Maffitt Avenue
St Louis, MO 63113

Funeral Service

MAY 31. 11:00 AM (CT)

Mt. Airy Missionary Baptist Church
4700 Maffitt Avenue
St Louis, MO 63113

Tribute Wall

LB

“ Papa, this is your Suzie Q. I will miss you soo much! The kisses on the forehead, checking in on me and making sure me and my kids are doing well. For every time you hugged me and made everything better. I will miss your laughter your overall presence. You are the first man I learned to love and you will always and forever have a space in my heart. Rest well Papa.

*Love Forever
Suzie Q*

Latoya Black - May 30, 2024 at 02:45 PM

SI

“ My condolences and prayers for the Bell and Avery families. Joe will be deeply missed. His smile, laughter, and warm, welcoming greetings had been consistent and genuine from my junior high school days to visiting him and Allie when I visited STL. He was truly a champion and a great man of God.

Gone at the blessed age of 80, he will never be forgotten.

Joe Bell, we will take care of your sweetie-pie along with God, for we know how much you loved and adored her. Now rest in the arms of our God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Tish, my sister, I will always be here for you and I love you. 🙏🏻👤👤

Sharon Irvin - May 30, 2024 at 10:25 AM

SI

“ My condolences and prayers for the Bell and Avery families. Joe will be deeply missed. His smile, laughter, and warm, welcoming greetings had been consistent and genuine from my junior high school days to visiting him and Allie when I visited STL. He was truly a champion and a great man of God.

Gone at the blessed age of 80, he will never be forgotten.

Joe Bell, we will take care of your sweetie-pie along with God, for we know how much you loved and adored her. Now rest in the arms of our God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Tish, my sister, I will always be here for you and I love you. 🙏🏻👤👤

Sharon Irvin - May 30, 2024 at 10:23 AM

JT

“ Deacon Bell, as I called him, will be always be in my thoughts every time I watch the Cardinals. As a long suffering fan I would call him and moma to remind them that the game was on and he would start cussing about them and the coach. A great sense of humor and loved my father-in-law stories. I will miss him terribly.

Janet Taylor - May 30, 2024 at 09:07 AM

MB

“ Where do I start grandpa. You will be missed so much. I have so many memories. The one that stands out is hearing your voice over the phone & in person saying well hello "Big Granddaughter". I will hold on to all the memories of you being an Amazing grandpa and always so genuinely kind to everyone with a smile. My final memory was of me & Tony bringing you & grandma lunch 2 months ago & sitting in the kitchen laughing & talking while eating. I always wanted to make you & grandma smile even though I knew pain was within. We will miss you & I know that you are not in pain anymore & are now smiling saying big granddaughter I'm okay. Look after your love, our grandmother. Rest Easy Grandpa & we love you continuously & you will forever be remembered

Monica Brown - May 29, 2024 at 04:45 PM

IT

“ We were so blessed to have you Grandpa Joe. That smile and the warm hugs that you shared will stay with me forever. The example of love, patience, care, and generosity sustained generations of our family. I'm smiling now thinking of the funny nicknames for the kids and grandkids and the gentle teasing that made us all laugh. You were one of one and I'm so glad that the Lord allowed us to have you for the time that we did. The time that we had would never be enough, even if it was a thousand years. So I say, thank you Lord. He was your faithful servant and now we ask that you receive him in your loving arms.

Ingrid Taylor - May 29, 2024 at 12:01 PM

DB

“ Oh how I wish that I can hear you say, “Hi sweetheart” and greet meet me with the biggest hug just one last time. Grandpa you were truly one of a kind and I am going to miss you. You are now free and resting in the Lord’s arms.

Love always and forever,

Danielle

Danielle Bell - May 28, 2024 at 10:29 AM

LC

“ I remember when he came to Washington State to visit I believe it was his first time flying I made potato salad for one of our dinners and he told momma she needed to learn how to make it like me. We laughed because she told him to stay here with me. I will never forget him and his love and support, the warm welcome he showed my now husband and continued showing concern when they both were sick. I love you Joe rest now forever in my heart.

Lisa Campbell - May 28, 2024 at 10:28 AM