“ You know, I remember my dad, Aunt Geneva, and Juanita used to call each other all the time to keep in touch, gossip, or whatever siblings and cousins do. I remember her always looking out for all her brother, Ben, Sam, and Willie Lee. I remember spending night over her place on Highland, and then on Page and Skinker. I remember her smile and hearty laugh. I remember her hugs and times we enjoyed each other's company. Sammy, Shirley Ann, Sharon, from my family to yours, you have our love, sympathy, and prayers for all of you and the family. Love you, cousins 💕💕💕

“ My dear Mother was an outstanding mom wrapped her arms around us all including her grand,great and great great grandchildren. We will continue to carry her teaching of life toward each other and others as she did. Mother I know you were tired and couldn't wait but I know when the Almighty call us we have to go I will miss you ,I will continue praising you Juanita as my loving mother may GOD keep you at his right side Oh mother please tell everyone of our love ones there with you hello may GOD be the glory....
Love you mom, SHARON your daughter
