“ When I'm Gone by Mosiah Lyman Hancock

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile*

*Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun*

*Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day*

*Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay*

*And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best*

*Rest in Peace Kenneth

“ Kenny my cousin. I have fond memories of vacations to the US when we were younger, spending time with Jenny, your dad, and auntie Esther.

From playing in the pool in the back yard, to camping on the river and of course our road trip to Disney, they were great times and will always be remembered.

I hope you are now with auntie Esther and have found your peace.

“ I was lucky to have the opportunity to serve with Ken for six years in the Air Force. A truly pleasant human being to be with. A remarkably talented young man with computers, a real patriot who served with honor in the Mideast theater, a quiet hero who served well without expectation of accolades. It was my honor to serve with Ken, and I will miss his quiet humor, reality-check “cheeky” inputs, and valued friendship. God Speed. v/r CMSgt David Wheeler.
