“ To My Family we will miss L.C but we will always remember him for his love of his family. I will miss the conversations we had. Mostly me doing all the talking and him doing all the listening. This past year he did the talking and I did the listening. May God comfort, bless and strengthen each of us. Rest in peace LC.

“ Many memories of my (Uncle) Cousin hanging out with my dad and I would always ask to stay to play with my cousins Angie/Teresa and have dinner at his place giving cousin Mary one more mouth to feed.. lots of great food and some sleep overs. He was much like my dad, very kind.

“ My daddy was such a joy and a Blessing to everyone he met. I miss you daddy, but I know you're in a much better place than this. No more pain. We will keep your Legacy going strong. We love you daddy and my heart aches because your not here with us anymore. Rest up daddy, we will meet again in paradise. ❤️
Love Always,
Your baby daughter

“ My Greatest Memory of my uncle is when he would come to Ohio and visit his family with my cousins and Aunt Mary. It was such a special time. Great Soul Food and lots of fond memories. My uncle was so handsome and so calm and no matter what was going on him being there made everything okay ❤️ I hated when he had to leave. It was such a sadness. I know it was for my Grandmother Elenora Willis (his mom). The tears would flow like a river. I am Happy to know that he is 🏠 home to stay with my Grandmother and Grandfather J.C. Willis. Your son is finally home to stay ❤️💫 love you Uncle L.C. rest in heaven.

Father L.C. I will miss you greatly. Life will not be the same without you. I can hardly go on living without you. I love you so much. It's so hard to part ways. You loved me unconditionally and I loved you the same. There's no love like a father's love. You made me life better in so many ways:

L.C.

I love you

I love you

I love you

Life is a lesson

learned by the love we have with others

The memories they leave

The moments we share

The days spent

It's a privilege to have relationship with parents

They are not promised always

But life is complete

I have lived

Thanks for you

God bless you journey in heaven

“ Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow,

It was a pleasure meeting Mr. L.C. and Angela. We enjoyed the blessings of praising God with the Word, singing hymns, and talking about the goodness of the Lord over the years, and learning that we both grew up in Mississippi. I send my condolences to the family and pray that God will comfort everyone during this time of mourning.
