“ My condolences to the family of Leonard Perry. His sister, Tamara, was the Godmother to my son Lonnell Graham. I was acquainted with Isaac, Tam, and Leonard. Leonard was a warm fast talking and seemily sensitive man. Only weeks prior to his passing he was sending text messages and adopted Tam's friends as his family upon her passing. Leonard will be missed as will his siblings. We must enjoy life-tomorrow is not promised. A prayer of Thanksgiving for the life of Leonard Perry, Lord hear our prayer! Martha Diane Willis-Graham

“ Leonard and I first met in the early 60’s and have been friends ever since. Hanging out at each other’s homes and at the park playing sports, fishing and riding bikes. He helped me through some trying times. He was a good man. I miss him.
