“ It's been a whole year since we lost you, Linda, and the void of loosing you is as big and empty today as it was this time last year. You were so amazingly smart and you helped so many of us in so many ways. What I wouldn't give to sit on those white couches in your beautifully decorated home and share one more conversation filled with laughter. Glenn and I talk fondly of you often, and we take comfort in knowing you are with your children, mom and brother. Sorely missed and never-ever forgotten. Theda Mae - January 23, 2019

“ I still remember the first day we met. An instant friendship transformed by love, humor, comradery and working in a shoebox. “I bet I can make the Chief go off before you do”, BET! “Bobby Norman loves you” “ You and your cats!”

We never know, do we? What I do know is your love is apart of me that can not be changed by physical existence. I can still here you voice “Man, I thought you were white”, “Could you stop teaching William pickup lines!” “My love, I love ya” “Is there anything you can do that Captain Anderson would get upset about” “Nat, if you party until 4 and come to work at six you might have a problem with proficiency”.

You encourage and inspired me. You mentored me and when necessary chastised me.” Nat, you can’t tell the patients if they had to pay they would be nicer” “Nat you can tell the patients to leave their kids home”

Life was not the easiest for you, but you carried on smartly, confidently, lovingly and generously. I selfishly assumed you would always be here. I was right. You will always be here in my heart and the woman I am. When I need a cheer up, I can just close my eyes and here you say “Do you know what William said today?”, and I will laugh and laugh like I we did so many times together.

I love you my friend.

“ To the family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. I pray you find comfort in God's word the Bible. For he promises that in "just a little while longer and death will be no more. " (Rev 21:4) Soon we will all be reunited with our dear loved ones.
