“ From the first day I meet you. You was the sweetest person I have ever meet we laugh cried and even joke we would see each other in the hallway at school you would ask am I OK and I would say yes even though you know something was wrong and you would say we will talk about it later love you miss you until we meet again

“ Lol cuzzin you was a coach and you ain't even know it!!! Man you have taught me to appreciate life! You have taught me to appreciate family! You have taught me how important memories are! You have taught me that life itself is a gift! You are the epitome of a strong man! You have the fight, the strength and the will of 100 men!! You will forever live thru everyone who loves! Rest easy baby!

“ Thank you son for giving me the opportunity to share the past 3 years with you. I must say not one day have you complain about your aches and pains or the condition you where in. It was an honor to be there with you through the good times and not so good times. I love You and you will be truly missed.
