

Mark Anson Warren

February 14, 1969 - July 24, 2024

Mark was born February 14, 1969 to Essie Mae Warren and Johnny Tunstall in St. Louis, MO. Mark was born on Valentine's Day, which explains why his heart was so full of Love. Mark developed a fever called Spinal Meningitis at a very early age which damaged the right side of his brain, but that didn't stop him from striving to be his own INDEPENDENT person.

Mark attended and graduated from Northview High School. He later went on to work at Big Lots, Block Buster Video and Schnucks. Mark spent a lot of time with his mother but loved his independence. He was close to his brother and loved him dearly.

Mark's love and knowledge of music was better than most. He could tell you almost every song from the 70's, who sang it and the year it was made. Mark loved Michael Jackson, Jeffrey Osborne, Freddie Jackson, Denise Williams, Johnny Mathis, ect. He would spend hours listening to music and watching TV at the same time. Some of his favorite shows were Good Times, The Jeffersons, Sanford & Son and The 3 Stooges. Mark enjoyed his weekends by taking the bus around town and to visit his family. He was so proud of his independence. If you were to see him out and about, he would decline a ride because he knew he could get home on his own.

Mark had the best memory ever!! He remembered peoples' names and something special about them. He would have great conversations and loved being around family. Anyone who talked to Mark could attest to his famous “hold on let me finish” or “you trying to block me from talking”

Mark was a loving and caring gentle man with a beautiful heart.

Proceeding him in death are his parents, Essie Mae Warren and Johnny Tunstall. Left to cherish his memory; his brother Reginald Warren (Sharonda), nephew Reginald Rashad Warren, great nephew Miles Warren, great niece Aubrey Warren, Aunt’s Rosetta Franklin, Leanna Sykes, Linda Warren, Carrie Warren, Deatrice Warren, Deborah Warren, uncles Jesse Warren and Cleo Warren and a host of cousins and friends

“ Because I live in Florida, I didn't get the opportunity to see Mark very often, but we I did see him I was met with the warmest smile and hug! I loved that he remembered me and was able to recall some things mentioned in our previous conversations! Mark was his own man, I loved getting the updates from Reggie on how independent and happy Mark was, it makes me smile now as I remember his sweet spirit! In these years without Ms. Essie, he was in great hands with Reggie, because although I didn't see a lot of what was going on with Mark and Reg, the love Reggie had in his voice when talking about his baby brother was ALWAYS heard. I'll miss him and his beautiful personality. Peace Mark ☐
