“ Special condolences are extended to Eddie and family for the transitioning of my dear friend Melvia (Mae) of over fifty years. Mae was a person that exhibited joy, peace, encouragement, and humor. She knew just how to bring you out of a negative space! I pray that the Hicks family know that our Creator never makes a mistake, but He does want each of us to continue to look to Him to fill the void of a missing wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friends. She shall definitely be missed but I will cherish the memories of my friend Mae.

Psalm 34:18/ 'The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit' NIV

Love You, Jenette.

“ We extend our sincere condolences to the entire Hicks Family in the earthly transitioning of your loved one, Mrs. Melvia Mae Hicks. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult moment. May the love, presence, and mercy of God be bestowed upon you all to give you the courage and strength to face the days that lie ahead and your journey of grief! I met Mrs. Hicks through a mutual friend, Beverly McCainey, and found her to be a kind, loving, and compassionate person. Let the memories of your loved one fill your mind, warm your heart, and guide you through each day! Rodney and Julia Ragland of Florence, Alabama (formerly of Florissant, Missouri)
