“ Michael was not only my cousin, but he was my favorite cousin. We grew up together. He was so fun and so handsome as we grew up I looked up to him.

He had a nice car, always dressed really nice and always doing cool things. I know we loved antiques. He loved music and he loved his family. Life takes us in different directions and all the while he stayed positive, he kept a smile on his face had kind things to say. It's hard to believe he's gone. He's the oldest out of all of his cousins gave the best hug. He and I would sing in the car and laugh. He made me salmon and Arctic carrots, and we joked around so much about those dang carrots. I along with my children loved Michael very much and have good memories of him. I hate to think that he had nobody and to be young. I'll never forget him and will always speak of my cousin Michael.
