“ Mom words can not express my love for you. You have been through so much in the past few years. I wish so many times you could have talked to me but Dementia had different plans for you. Your memories will be with me forever and your love for family and especially those Grandkids and Great Grandkids they had the perfect love from you. I knew you wanted to go be with Dad and Jim your time was done and may you fly high and just know you will be missed and cherished forever and ever. I love you Mom. Love you always Baby Girl as you would tell everyone Jan.

"CISSY". That is what I called you when we were kids growing up on Warren Street. My love for you has lasted through all of these years and will continue for eternity. You will also be missed and always loved by my entire family.

Brother George.
