“ He was the kindest man i knew. He was always there for anyone that needed him weather it was family or a neighbor or an employee at a McDonald's that he stopped at for lunch. He was always wanting to spread his knowledge and constantly pick up more. He was one of a kind. And this world truly wont be the same without him. He homeschooled me, taught me how to work with my hands, taught me how to treat people and to be kind loving and compassionate. He was like a father to me and a best friend. Love you grandad. I miss you so much.
