“ Sometimes the smallest things take up the most room in your heart and help shape the person you become. Aunt Naomi was that gentle spirit that loved unconditionally and made you feel good whenever we saw her. I am grateful to have spent small spans of time with her growing up.

“ May Sister Higgins' kind heart, loving smile and uplifting spirit always be remembered as her homegoing is celebrated! May the LOVE of her, Our God, Our Church and members as myself assure the family that we are all ONE in JESUS NAME! Jesus assuredly has welcomed her home! May the the God's love and peace comfort and keep all, trusting GOD is surely watching and caring for all. Hope, Blessings and Love to all...
