

O'Neal Hayes Brown

March 21, 1944 - November 15, 2024

A Time to Be Born:

O' Neal Hayes Brown, Jr. was born March 21, 1944 in St. Louis, Missouri. He was the fourth child born of nine children of Rosie (née Jackson) Brown and Reverend O' Neal Hayes Brown Sr... His father Reverend O.H. Brown, mother Rosie (Jackson) Brown, brother Robert H. Brown Sr, and sister Macie (née Brown) Lee preceded him in death.

A Time to Labor and Serve:

O'Neal Jr attended Saints Mary and Joseph Catholic School and various St. Louis Public Schools including Sumner High School. He worked for Watkins Incorporated as one of their top salesmen, the St. Louis City Hospital, Bristol-Myers for 25 years and worked at Faith House for 6 years.

Growing up as a preacher's kid O' Neal accepted Christ in his life at an early age. He was a devoted son and brother, big-hearted, ready to give assistance, always ready to give his opinion and sometimes eccentric, in a self-confident kind of way.

O'Neal was a wizard when it came to sport team's trivia, politics, and other general world topics. No one dare to test his knowledge of details.

A Time to Mourn:

O'Neal H. Brown leaves to his remaining family treasured memories and love: His sisters, Helen (Attral) Hairston, Joyce Phillips, Ruby (Peter) O'Quinn, and brothers Roland (Naomi) Brown, Paul (Janis) Brown, William (Patricia) Brown, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives.

O'Neal will be deeply missed by his family and others who knew him.

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 10. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

Archway Memorial Chapel
111 Taylor Road
Hazelwood, MO 63042
(314) 895-3900
info@archwaychapel.com

Tribute Wall

RO

“ *My most memorable memory of my brother is during the Christmas season. He would always give us all beautiful gifts that meant so much to us all. We will all miss you Junior. Until we meet again,
Love you Ruby O'Quinn*

Ruby O'Quinn - December 03, 2024 at 03:06 PM