

Ollie M Smith

May 18, 1925 - June 19, 2015

Ollie M. Smith, aged 90, died peacefully on June 19, 2015 at Des Peres Hospital. She was born May 18, 1925 in St. Louis, MO.

Ollie was never without something new to accomplish including obtaining her final BA in Legal Ethics from Webster College when she was 82 to go along with her other degrees and certifications. She continued to share her experience and knowledge by volunteering to tutor young children in reading and math.

Ollie also enjoyed world events, the stock market and politics and was fascinated with emerging technologies. She had also written a number of poems and was very creative in her quilt and crochet designs.

She is survived by her children Keith Crumpton and Starr Crumpton living in Massachusetts and Marc Crumpton living in California. She also has three grandchildren, Austin, Cesare and Marcello and one great grandchild, Wakinyan. She is also survived by her sister Anna Mae Paynes and her brother Warren Shannon and her oldest niece Ida Ford and a host of many other nieces and nephews as well as many close friends.

There will be a funeral service at Archway Memorial Chapel followed by a burial service at St Peter's Cemetery in the chapel.

Poem by Ollie Smith

The Taste of Wine

Flower my life with experience
Connoisseur the many characteristics
Let the inner feeling tickle my life
Give me the heady head of a continuing mind
I don't want to stop loving, listening, learning.
Fill up my glass with exciting times.
I want to enjoy the taste!
Drop by drop, moment by moment!
