“ I will truly miss Pam. She was always fun when I went to take care of our lockers. I would always make the payments inside so we could just chat. She made me laugh many times and she would help me moving stuff, getting lockers and even helping my daughter in Arizona. I will miss her laugh. She was a joy to be around. My prayers are there for your family, losing her so unexpectedly. We even talked about her surgery. Never thought it would turn out like this. We are all blessed to have shared a moment of her life. Again, I will miss her.

“ I have many memories of Pamela. The first one is when we were workout buddies at a gym. We had the best time laughing. We would be on the floor trying to do sit-ups and couldn't do them properly because we couldn't stop laughing. We also went out a lot. While we were riding in the car we would sing songs. But when we were stopped with our windows down in the middle of summer we would start sing Christmas songs and the people in the next car would give us looks like we were crazy. When we would go out to eat afterwards most of the time we made a spectacle of ourselves because most of the time was spent laughing until the place closed. Pamela also joined my friend Mary Murphy, My cousin Mary Defrank and myself on a cruise. We visited St Croix and she wrote Lunatto Beach on the white sand. She looked like a movie star on that cruise when she was all dressed up. There were so many good memories of that trip that I will never forget. We were young and carefree without a worry in the world. I will miss Pamela dearly. Even though I didn't see much of her, when I did she always had a smile and a sparkle in her eyes. We love you Pamela! Give a hug and a kiss to my mom for me while your there. Your cousin, Debbie Lunatto-Emshoff
