“ *Uncle Juan,
I don't know what to say to a man who has lost a brother and now his wife. I know it must be hard so I pray to God that he blesses you and takes care of you. He must have a plan for Aunt Pat as he has called her home. My memories of my Aunt Pat are all good ones and I will cherish them forever. May God bless her soul.*

“ Mickey and Family,

I love you and wanted to be there. Now that I am almost 94, I don't travel much. But, I have prayed for God to help you, and I know He will. Pat was a part of us and we will miss her. I know God's will just be done, and that His plan is always best. Keep trusting in Him and He will supply all of your needs, for Her promised never to leave you or forsake you.

Love Always,

- Aunt Bunt

“ We will always cherish Pat and her loving significance to our family. She and I shared two common love interests: her husband - my brother, and shopping for antiques. I will fondly remember the times we searched the antique stores in Alabama - she had a "good eye" for selecting quality pieces. Although we will miss her, especially at family gatherings, I know we will all be together again in heaven one day. God loves Pat best, and her time on earth and in eternity are in His Hands. Mickey, Kim, Kola, Kyler, Kaleb, and Kirsten, and to Pat's relatives, I regret I am not able to be there with you. I pray you will continue to allow God's abundant grace to comfort, heal and guide you through this time of sadness. May you all come to know the love of God more richly and be drawn closer to Him daily.

With Love and Sympathy,

- Linda

“ 2 Corinthians 5:6-8 tells us "we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord." Mrs. Beavers did not leave this world to leave behind pain or sorrow- that was never her intention. She merely answered the call of the Lord, and was led home by faith, with no doubt that He would shelter your families through this storm.

I pray for serenity in your time of need, strength in your moments of discomfort, and joy in your thoughts of her, knowing she is safe within His arms.

My heart goes out to the families, as you seek comfort during this time.

“ My heart is aching at this time. However I know that to be absent from the body is to be present with The Lord. Pat was a wonderful woman. She had charisma and style and always sparked an interesting conversation. I admired and appreciated the wife that she was to my father. Her love for gardening told a lot about her spirit and the naturer that she was. We will miss her dearly. Kyler Kaleb and Kirstan enjoyed every moment that they spent with their Graham. As for me. I love you Pat. Your spirit and memory will live on forever. I'm happy you are at peace now. There is nothing more precious than being wrapped in your heavenly fathers arms. Dad is in good hands. We love you forever. Rest now. Just rest.
