“ To Debbie, Wayne, and Brian: I always enjoyed your visits to Arkansas when all of the Evans clan would gather to visit with you all. Uncle Paul would always tease and play with the younger nieces and nephews. He was also good at pestering his sisters. We always enjoyed Uncle Paul and Aunt Barbara's visits! May God bless you at this time in your lives!

“ Debbie & Dennis, I also wanted to mention how much it must've meant to your Dad that he was in your care. You were his earth angels! Your willingness and selflessness to make sure his last few months of life were surrounded with dignity and love did not go unnoticed! What a great honor to love and serve the man that loved and served you and others so well! Love You both bunches ~ God Bless You both.

“ Debbie, Dennis, Barb and Family~ we are so sorry to hear about Paul's passing! Hoping you find comfort in the many memories you have. He is no longer in pain and rejoicing with his savior he loved so dearly - Jesus Christ! I have sweet memories of his kindness and frankness at times. He always liked to pull on my ear for whatever reason :-) He was ornery & feisty, he enjoyed life and helping others! He will not be forgotten!

*In Christ Love,
~Tina & Mike Solomon*
